MAYBE YOU THINK OF BENNETT BIGELOW & LEEDOM AS ONLY A HEALTH CARE FIRM

That's understandable. We have one of the largest health care practices in the western United States. Our health care lawyers are nationally recognized experts in many areas including Medicare fraud and medical malpractice defense. Because of our expertise, we represent health care clients from around the country as well as from the Northwest.

But, in addition to our health care practice, we have a first-class litigation practice, one offering exceptional expertise in education, employment, product liability and complex commercial disputes. Plus, a business practice whose lawyers expertly handle a wide range of transactions.

We continue to get a sizeable number of client referrals from other lawyers. So it really means a lot to us that four of our lawyers were named Super Lawyers by our peers:

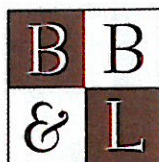

Teri Dettmer

Liz Leedom

Bill Leedom

David Robbins

To these Super Lawyers, congratulations. To our peers, thanks for recognizing these individuals and a law firm whose practice extends far beyond health care.
